Life Membership

Farmand Ghafari, the Chief Inspector for the City of Burnaby presented an EIA Life Membership award to Elio Fata who recently retired as an inspector for the City of Burnaby. Farmand commended Elio for his hard work and dedication as an inspector and his support for the EIA.

Dave Shavalier advised the meeting that Shawn Hollingsworth had recently retired from TELUS. Dave noted Shawn was instrumental in obtaining the TELUS facility and related amenities for the EIA Code seminar.

Dave extended a special thank you to Shawn for his tremendous support and contributions to the EIA.

Roger Tuttle moved that Shawn be made a Life Member of the EIA. The motion was seconded by Elio Fata. Carried.

IAEI

Ivan Pye advised the meeting that the IAEI was in the process of reactivating the B.C. chapter. He noted a new Executive had been formed to assist with this endeavour.

Ivan introduced the new Executive members of the IAEI as follows:

President	Ivan Pye
Vice President	Ted Simmons
Membership Director	Jack Robertson
Education Director	Bill Burr
Treasurer	Duncan Stevenson
Secretary	Bob Cornwell
Director	Jack Ball
Director	Roger Tuttle

Ivan emphasized the IAEI would not be competing with the EIA and would be focusing on education issues pertaining to Electrical Inspectors. He noted the IAEI would be directly involved with the proposed National certification program for Electrical Inspectors. Ivan encouraged people to make application and join the IAEI.

Adjournment

There being no further new business, Dave Shavalier adjourned the meeting at 20:00 hours.

The meeting was followed by the annual Christmas gift draw with Santa Jack and his two able helpers Len and Eric. A 50/50 draw was conducted by Bob Cornwell. The proceeds of the draw will be donated to Canuck Place. Sam Catroppa was the winner of the draw. A good time was had by all.
